

Guide to JACLaS International Award at the Japan Association for Clinical Laboratory Science The 55th Congress

Greetings

Both the Japan Association for Clinical Laboratory Science (JCLS)* and the Japanese Association of Clinical Laboratory Systems (JACLaS)** are happy to announce the JACLaS International Award.

For this year's JACLaS EXPO, to be held from October 6-8, 2023, at Pacifico Yokohama, we are actively soliciting presentations by international students from ASEAN Countries on a wide variety of Biomedical Laboratory Sciences topics. Those students with the most interesting and relevant presentations will receive the JACLaS International Award, details of which are outlined below.

We hope that many students at your institution will enthusiastically participate in competing for this prize.

*The aim of JCLS is to contribute to precise diagnosis, appropriate treatment, and better health care by applying the latest technologies to clinical laboratories. <https://jcls.or.jp/english/>

**JACLaS is to improve the health and welfare of our nation's population, and to contribute to progress in the clinical laboratory field. <https://jaclas.or.jp/en/index.html>

Call for Student Submissions – JACLaS International Award

JACLaS International Award

- Open to students at university, technical schools and community colleges, and students in Biomedical Laboratory Sciences. (Students must be enrolled in a relevant institution as of October 2023)

General Information

- Any topic relevant to basic and clinical research in Biomedical Laboratory Sciences.
- In the application form, fill in the name of the presentation, name of the presenter, affiliated school, or college, and three keywords.
- The abstract can be of any length up to 1,800 characters in total.
- Submit the form by email* to the JACLaS Office e-mail by 31st May 2023.
- The JCLS Program Committee will select 3 winners at maximum, and the winners only will be contacted. Each student will make their presentation during the Student Award Presentation period on Saturday, October 7th.

* JACLaS Office e-mail: info@jaclas.or.jp

Winners will receive

1. All expenses for hotel, and transportation from home to venue (The booking will be informed after winning)
2. Conference fee paid by JCLS
3. An invitation to the General Assembly for the Awards Ceremony (may be cancelled depending on the COVID-19 situation)
4. Award Certificate, Award Plaque, ¥10,000 Cash Prize

Direct inquiries to: Conference Office/JACLaS info@jaclas.or.jp

Takashi Wada, M.D., Ph.D., The Japan Association for Clinical Laboratory Science, President

Teruto Hashiguchi, M.D., Ph.D., Chairperson of Committee on International Activities of the Japan Association for Clinical Laboratory Science

Toshiharu Sekine, Japanese Association of Clinical Laboratory Systems, Managing Director